

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 9

Monday, April 2, 2001

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 11:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Phil F. Edwards of First Assembly of God of Panama City, upon invitation of Rep. Bense:

Heavenly Father, it is with sincere gratitude that we call on Your Holy Name this beautiful spring morning, thanking You for life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness which You have so abundantly granted us in our country through the wisdom You gave our forefathers in establishing such a form of government as we now enjoy.

Thank You, Father, also, for these very special people, our state legislators who are, by Your design, powerful instruments of peace, prosperity, and protection to the people who elected them to such an honorable station.

Lord, we join millions who love our beloved state and nation, and we boldly ask in concert for humility, wisdom, and righteous courage to these, our leaders, to always find and do what is right in Your sight first, before they consider what is expedient or benefiting to us, the people. Please make them strong and help them greatly to be people of principle in a time and culture where everyone does what seems right in their own eyes.

Let them each one know that they can stand tall above the fray and think with a clear mind and clean conscience. Let them know that it's not only possible to do this, but that You will do this and help everyone who sincerely asks for that very special leadership grace.

Please help them, Lord, please, with their physical and medical needs, in their financial dealings, in their personal lives, in their homes, and in their marriages. Please, Father, at this very moment, communicate to each of them how very much You love them and want them to know You more personally than they have ever known You before, through faith in Your Son, Jesus Christ.

All this we ask believing, believing that You hear us and will answer, for such a time as this.

In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

Resolutions

HR 9015—A resolution commending The James Madison Institute: A Foundation for Florida's Future.

WHEREAS, due to term limits, the General Election of 2000 saw the arrival of an unprecedented number of new members to the Florida House of Representatives, and

WHEREAS, Tom Feeney, Speaker of the Florida House of Representatives, held the vision that the one best way to provide the newly elected members with the information they would need to be effective was to devote a significant amount of time early in their term to a comprehensive, information-based orientation, and

WHEREAS, Speaker Feeney asked The James Madison Institute: A Foundation for Florida's Future to assist him in realizing his vision by coordinating such a program, and

WHEREAS, The James Madison Institute responded with enthusiasm and developed "Leadership NOW," a bipartisan, multi-philosophical ten-day series of orientation panels, informational sessions, and associated activities spread over five weeks during the months of November and December 2000 and January 2001, and

WHEREAS, such a program was unprecedented in Florida and in the nation at large and, as executed, met with the approval of all concerned, most especially the newly elected members of the House of Representatives who were the primary beneficiaries, and

WHEREAS, the five weeks of the Leadership NOW program were produced using little public money and, as a result, the cost to taxpayers was less than the amount spent in Florida in previous years for shorter programs with less content, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That Speaker Tom Feeney and Members of the Florida House of Representatives herewith express their deep appreciation to The James Madison Institute and its officers and staff: The Honorable Mallory E. Horne, Chairman; Edwin H. Moore II, President; Dr. J. Stanley Marshall, Founding Chairman; Dr. Peter Doherty; Dr. Kimble Ainslie; Sonja Woodham; Evelverlon Johnson; Susan Christian; and Rosemary Dupras for undertaking and successfully executing the responsibilities of producing Leadership NOW.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to the officers and staff of The James Madison Institute who produced Leadership NOW as a tangible token of the sentiments expressed herein.

—was read the second time by title.

Representative(s) Fasano offered the following:

(Amendment Bar Code: 425915)

Amendment 1—On page 2, line 11, remove from the bill: II

Rep. Fasano moved the adoption of the amendment, which was adopted.

On motion by Rep. Fasano, the resolution was adopted, as amended.

HR 9033—A resolution designating April 2, 2001, as “Space Day in Florida.”

WHEREAS, the space industry has more than a $4.5 billion economic impact on the State of Florida, and

WHEREAS, Florida’s economy has prospered, with more than 23,000 Floridians employed by the space program, and

WHEREAS, Florida has been an internationally recognized center for space research, education, innovation, and industry, and

WHEREAS, 26 of Florida’s 67 counties are home to businesses in the space industry, and

WHEREAS, the space industry’s partners in Florida include state and federal agencies and commercial enterprises, and

WHEREAS, Florida is building a premier space research facility, the Space Experiment Research and Processing Laboratory, at Kennedy Space Center to support International Space Station research projects, and

WHEREAS, Kennedy Space Center in Cape Canaveral, Florida, is the gateway to the International Space Station, and

WHEREAS, the International Space Station now represents Florida and the United States as well as 16 cooperating nations for scientific research and discovery, and

WHEREAS, Destiny, the United States-built research lab, was launched from Cape Canaveral, Florida, on board the Space Shuttle Atlantis on February 7, 2001, and

WHEREAS, the crew of the International Space Station will perform research in a variety of scientific disciplines advancing the world’s understanding of life sciences, earth sciences, and materials processing, while fostering commercial research activities in space, and

WHEREAS, space research touches the lives of people everywhere, increases the rate of invention, expands scientific knowledge, inspires our children, and satisfies our ancient need to explore and achieve, and

WHEREAS, the International Space Station will be the largest space orbiter in history at a size of 1,040,000 pounds, and measuring 356 feet long by 290 feet wide, and

WHEREAS, the International Space Station orbits the Earth once every 90 minutes at an approximate speed of 17,000 miles per hour, and

WHEREAS, the Expedition Two crew of the International Space Station, Commander Yury Usachev, Flight Engineer James Voss, and Flight Engineer Susan Helms have joined a meeting of the Florida House of Representatives, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the Florida House of Representatives hereby designates April 2, 2001, as “Space Day in Florida” in recognition of the space community’s contributions to Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be presented to the Spaceport Florida Authority and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration as a tangible token of the sentiments expressed herein.
