

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 10

Tuesday, April 3, 2001

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 10:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by David M. Fuller, State Command Chaplain of the Florida National Guard, upon invitation of Reps. Baker and Wiles:

O Lord of light and love, we thank You for the fresh day that lies before us. And we thank You for the opportunity of living in a land where the principles of liberty, justice, dignity, and responsibility guide our personal and corporate lives.

We recognize, O Lord, that the principles that guide our life as a nation must be guarded with care and diligence. And we thank You for the men and women of the armed forces who stand as sturdy sentinels on the frontier of freedom. And we ask You to bless them and to bless their families for the sacrifices they make to ensure that freedom and justice will remain bold beacons of hope in the 21st century.

And Lord, we thank You for the role that each of us can play as dedicated citizens in a good and gracious land. Give us insight and wisdom as we seek to serve the needs of our fellow citizens. Give us courage and faith to undertake even the most difficult issues with compassion and understanding. And unite us as a people ready to share the bounty of our blessings and the opportunity that freedom brings.

O Lord, we ask Your blessing upon those who have been elected and appointed to serve over us. We pray that You will guide, guard, and direct the President of the United States, the Governor of Florida, and the Florida House of Representatives, and the citizen soldiers who are poised and ready to bring safety and comfort to those in need.

And Father, we ask Your special blessing and healing touch upon Representative Harrell's husband, James. Be there, comfort. Be there, a presence in his life.

O Lord, we are a grateful people. Bless us with Your presence now. In Your name we pray. Amen.

Resolution

By Representative Wiles—

HR 9041—A resolution honoring the Florida National Guard and designating April 3, 2001, as “Florida National Guard Day.”

WHEREAS, the Florida National Guard is the military arm of the Governor and the people of the great State of Florida, and

WHEREAS, whenever there is a crisis or an emergency, the Florida National Guard stands ready to immediately respond to a call from the Governor, and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Florida can always be assured that, when called to protect their lives and property, the Florida National Guard will respond, prepared to accomplish any task or mission, and

WHEREAS, the Florida National Guard deployed on January 26, 2001, for Operation Swift Suppression to fight wildfires throughout the great State of Florida, and

WHEREAS, elements of the 1-111th Aviation Attack Helicopter Battalion deployed on July 6, 2000, for 9 months in the continued defense of the nation of Kuwait, and

WHEREAS, with the approach of the 2001 hurricane season, the Florida National Guard is richly deserving of recognition for its success in the past as its soldiers and airmen stand ready to meet any crisis in the future, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the House of Representatives recognizes the true and faithful service of the soldiers and airmen of the Florida National Guard.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the House of Representatives recognizes the significant contributions and consistent readiness of the Florida National Guard by designating April 3, 2001, as “Florida National Guard Day” in the State of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to Major General Ronald O. Harrison, Adjutant General of Florida, as a tangible token of the sentiments expressed herein.

—was read the first time by title and the second time by title.

Motion and Presentation of Guests

On motion by Rep. Wiles, the privilege of the floor was granted to Major General Ronald O. Harrison, the Adjutant General of the Florida National Guard. Rep. Wiles also recognized Major General Harrison’s wife, Missie; Brigadier General Jimmy Watson and his wife, Nela; Brigadier General Doug Burnett and his wife, Judy; Command Sergeant Major Mac Gamasche, and the other members of the Florida National Guard who were seated in the gallery.

The question recurred on the adoption of HR 9041. On motion by Rep. Wiles, the resolution was adopted.

Amendment 4 (with title amendment)—On page 8, line 19 through page 16, line 20, remove from the bill: all of said lines and insert in lieu thereof:

Section 5. Subsection (16) of Section 409.906, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (25) is added to said subsection, to read:

409.906 Optional Medicaid services.—Subject to specific appropriations, the agency may make payments for services which are optional to the state under Title XIX of the Social Security Act and are furnished by Medicaid providers to recipients who are determined to be eligible on the dates on which the services were provided. Any optional service that is provided shall be provided only when medically necessary and in accordance with state and federal law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent or limit the agency from adjusting fees, reimbursement rates, lengths of stay, number of visits, or number of services, or making any other adjustments necessary to comply with the availability of moneys and any limitations or directions provided for in the General Appropriations Act or chapter 216. If necessary to safeguard the state's systems of providing services to elderly and disabled persons and subject to the notice and review provisions of s. 216.177, the Governor may direct the Agency for Health Care Administration to amend the Medicaid state plan to delete the optional Medicaid service known as "Intermediate Care Facilities for the Developmentally Disabled." Optional services may include:

(16) INTERMEDIATE CARE SERVICES.—The agency may pay for 24-hour-a-day intermediate care nursing and rehabilitation services rendered to a recipient in a nursing facility licensed under part II of chapter 400, if the services are ordered by and provided under the direction of a physician, meet nursing home level of care criteria as determined by the Comprehensive Assessment and Review Long-Term Care (CARE) Program of the Department of Elderly Affairs, and do not meet the definition of "general care" as used in the Medicaid budget estimating process.

(25) ASSISTIVE CARE SERVICES.—The agency may pay for assistive care services provided to recipients with functional or cognitive impairments residing in assisted living facilities, adult family-care homes, or residential treatment facilities with 16 or fewer beds. These services may include health support, assistance with the activities of daily living and the instrumental acts of daily living, assistance with medication administration, and arrangements for health care.

and insert in lieu thereof:

121.35 Optional retirement program for the State University System.—

(4) CONTRIBUTIONS.—

(a) Through June 30, 2001, each employer shall contribute on behalf of each participant in the optional retirement program an amount equal to the normal cost portion of the employer retirement contribution which would be required if the participant were a regular member of the Florida Retirement System defined benefit program, plus the portion of the contribution rate required in s. 112.363(8) that would otherwise be assigned to the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy Trust Fund. Effective July 1, 2001, each employer shall contribute on behalf of each participant in the optional program an amount equal to 10.43 percent of the participant's gross monthly compensation. The department shall deduct, less an amount approved by the Legislature which shall be deducted by the department to provide for the administration of this program. The payment of the contributions to the optional program which is required by this paragraph for each participant shall be made by the employer to the department, which shall forward the contributions to the designated company or companies contracting for payment of benefits for the participant under the program. However, such contributions paid on behalf of an employee described in paragraph (3)(c) shall not be forwarded to a company and shall not begin to accrue interest until the employee has executed an annuity contract and notified the department.

Section 6. Paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 121.051, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

121.051 Participation in the system.—

(2) OPTIONAL PARTICIPATION.—

(c) Employees of members of the Florida Community College System or charter technical career centers sponsored by members of the Florida Community College System, as designated in s. 240.3031, who are members of the Regular Class of the Florida Retirement System and who comply with the criteria set forth in this paragraph and in s. 240.3195 may elect, in lieu of participating in the Florida Retirement System, to withdraw from the Florida Retirement System altogether and participate in a lifetime monthly annuity program, to be known as the State Community College System Optional Retirement Program, which may be provided by the employing agency under s. 240.3195. Pursuant thereto:

1. Through June 30, 2001, the cost to the employer for such annuity shall equal the normal cost portion of the employer retirement contribution which would be required if the employee were a member of the Regular Class defined benefit program, plus the portion of the contribution rate required by s. 112.363(8) that would otherwise be assigned to the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy Trust Fund. Effective July 1, 2001, each employer shall contribute on behalf of each participant in the optional program an amount equal to 10.43 percent of the participant's gross monthly compensation. The employer shall deduct, and less an amount approved by the employer to provide for the administration of the optional retirement program. The employer providing such annuity shall contribute an additional amount to the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund equal to the unfunded actuarial accrued liability portion of the Regular Class contribution rate.

2. The decision to participate in such an optional retirement program shall be irrevocable for as long as the employee holds a position eligible for participation. Any service creditable under the Florida Retirement System shall be retained after the member withdraws from the Florida Retirement System; however, additional service credit in the Florida Retirement System shall not be earned while a member of the optional retirement program.

3. Participation in an optional annuity program shall be limited to those employees who satisfy the following eligibility criteria:

a. The employee must be otherwise eligible for membership in the Regular Class of the Florida Retirement System, as provided in s. 121.021(11) and (12).

b. The employee must be employed in a full-time position classified in the Accounting Manual for Florida's Public Community Colleges as:

(I) Instructional; or

(II) Executive Management, Instructional Management, or Institutional Management, if a community college determines that recruiting to fill a vacancy in the position is to be conducted in the national or regional market, and:

(A) The duties and responsibilities of the position include either the formulation, interpretation, or implementation of policies; or

(B) The duties and responsibilities of the position include the performance of functions that are unique or specialized within higher education and that frequently involve the support of the mission of the community college.

c. The employee must be employed in a position not included in the Senior Management Service Class of the Florida Retirement System, as described in s. 121.055.

4. Participants in the program are subject to the same reemployment limitations, renewed membership provisions, and forfeiture provisions as are applicable to regular members of the Florida Retirement System under ss. 121.091(9), 121.122, and 121.091(5), respectively.

5. Eligible community college employees shall be compulsory members of the Florida Retirement System until, pursuant to the procedures set forth in s. 240.3195, the first day of the next full calendar month following the filing of both a written election to withdraw and a completed application for an individual contract or certificate with the program administrator and receipt of such election by the division.

Section 7. Paragraph (d) of subsection (6) of section 121.055, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

121.055 Senior Management Service Class.—There is hereby established a separate class of membership within the Florida Retirement System to be known as the "Senior Management Service Class," which shall become effective February 1, 1987.

(d) Contributions.—

1. Through June 30, 2001, each employer shall contribute on behalf of each participant in the Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program an amount equal to the normal cost portion of the employer retirement contribution which would be required if the participant were a Senior Management Service Class member of the Florida Retirement System defined benefit program, plus the portion of the contribution rate required in s. 112.363(8) that would otherwise be assigned to the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy Trust Fund. Effective July 1, 2001, each employer shall contribute on behalf of each participant in the optional program an amount equal to 12.49 percent of the participant's gross monthly compensation. The department shall deduct, less an amount approved by the Legislature which shall be deducted by the department to provide for the administration of this program. The payment of the contributions to the optional program which is required by this subparagraph for each participant shall be made by the employer to the department, which shall forward the contributions to the designated company or companies contracting for payment of benefits for the participant under the program.

2. Each employer shall contribute on behalf of each participant in the Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program an amount equal to the unfunded actuarial accrued liability portion of the employer contribution which would be required for members of the Senior Management Service Class in the Florida Retirement System. This contribution shall be paid to the department for transfer to the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund.

3. An Optional Annuity Program Trust Fund shall be established in the State Treasury and administered by the department to make payments to provider companies on behalf of the optional annuity program participants, and to transfer the unfunded liability portion of the state optional annuity program contributions to the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund.

4. Contributions required for social security by each employer and each participant, in the amount required for social security coverage as now or hereafter may be provided by the federal Social Security Act shall be maintained for each participant in the Senior Management Service retirement program and shall be in addition to the retirement contributions specified in this paragraph.

5. Each participant in the Senior Management Service Optional Annuity Program may contribute by way of salary reduction or deduction a percentage amount of the participant's gross compensation not to exceed the percentage amount contributed by the employer to the optional annuity program. Payment of the participant's contributions shall be made by the employer to the department, which shall forward the contributions to the designated company or companies contracting for payment of benefits for the participant under the program.

Section 8. Paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of section 240.3195, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

240.3195 State Community College System Optional Retirement Program.—Each community college may implement an optional retirement program, if such program is established therefor pursuant to s. 240.319(4)(r), under which annuity contracts providing retirement and death benefits may be purchased by, and on behalf of, eligible employees who participate in the program. Except as otherwise provided herein, this retirement program, which shall be known as the State Community College System Optional Retirement Program, may be implemented and administered only by an individual community college or by a consortium of community colleges.

(4)(a) Through June 30, 2001, each college must contribute on behalf of each program participant an amount equal to the normal cost portion of the employer retirement contribution which would be required if the program participant were a member of the Regular Class of the Florida Retirement System as provided in s. 121.071, plus the portion of the contribution rate required in s. 112.363(8) that would otherwise be assigned to the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy Trust Fund Effective July 1, 2001, each college must contribute on behalf of each program participant an amount equal to 10.43 percent of the participant's gross monthly compensation. The college shall deduct, ~~and less~~ an amount approved by the community college to provide for the administration of the optional retirement program. Payment of this contribution must be made either directly by the community college or through the program administrator to the designated company contracting for payment of benefits to the program participant.

(b) Each community college must contribute on behalf of each program participant an amount equal to the unfunded actuarial accrued liability portion of the employer contribution which would be required if the program participant were a member of the Regular Class of the Florida Retirement System. Payment of this contribution must be made directly by the college to the department for deposit in the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund.

(c) Each program participant who has executed an annuity contract may contribute by way of salary reduction or deduction a percentage of the program participant's gross compensation, but this percentage may not exceed the corresponding percentage contributed by the community college to the optional retirement program. Payment of this contribution may be made either directly by the college or through the program administrator to the designated company contracting for payment of benefits to the program participant.

(d) Contributions to an optional retirement program by a college or a program participant are in addition to, and have no effect upon, contributions required now or in future by the federal Social Security Act.
