The Beginning

The Florida House of Representatives provides many opportunities for men and women to serve the State's vast and multifaceted citizenry.

In 1967, then Senator Lawton Chiles sponsored a bill creating an Intern Program for the Florida Legislature as a means by Over the last 48 years, more than 850 young adults have gained immeasurable insight regarding the inner workings of government, and many have gone on to use this experience in their professional life.

which young adults are introduced to the legislative process. The program's mission is the same today as it was then: to provide college graduates and graduate students with an opportunity to gain first-hand knowledge of the legislative process and to participate in the work of the legislative branch of state government.

"The House Intern Program provided me with a unique opportunity to obtain hands-on experience working in Florida's legislative process. There are many ways to impact public policy—for me, this experience launched my passion to become a lawmaker and public servant."

Rep. Adam Hasner, Legislative Intern 1993-1994

The Experience

Participants are assigned to House committees and subcommittees, and leadership offices. Under the guidance of senior House staff, assignments may include research, bill drafting and analysis, oversight activities, and other tasks relating to policy or fiscal areas.
