LIFE AS A LAWMAKER

THE FLORIDA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Grades 6+
My name is ...
A Note from the Florida House of Representatives

Congratulations on your decision to learn more about becoming a Florida Legislator! We hope this book serves as a helpful guide as you begin your journey.
Three Branches of Government

Just like most states in America, the Constitution of the state of Florida is based on the U.S. Constitution. Because of this, there are many similarities between the two, including three coequal branches of government that are called the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial branches.

The legislative branch is responsible for creating and passing Florida’s laws and is divided into two Chambers: the House of Representatives and the Senate. In Florida, there are 120 members of the Florida House and 40 members of the Florida Senate who gather in Tallahassee for 60 days each year to pass laws. The legislative branch is also responsible for preparing the state budget each year.

The executive branch is responsible for enforcing Florida’s laws. While the head of the executive branch at the federal level is the President of the United States, the head of Florida’s executive branch is the Governor. The Governor is responsible for hiring people to positions in state government like the Department of Education and the Department of Environmental Protection. The Governor is also responsible for approving all of Florida’s laws, including the state budget.

The judicial branch is responsible for reviewing Florida’s laws and making sure that they follow the Florida Constitution. There are four levels of Florida’s judicial system that deal with both civil and criminal cases: County Courts, Circuit Courts, District Courts of Appeal, and the Florida Supreme Court, which is the highest court in Florida.
Three Branches of Government

Use the previous page to match the jobs and powers with the branch of government. Write “L” for Legislative, “E” for Executive, and “J” for Judicial next to the job that each branch of the state government carries out.

Let’s Make this Official

So, you want to become a State Representative?
Design your campaign poster to get the word out that you’re running for a seat in the Florida House of Representatives!
Congratulations! Your campaign sign was a hit and you were elected to the Florida House of Representatives. Now it’s time to create some laws that will make your community and state better.

The following images represent all the steps a bill must go through before it becomes a law. Put all of these images in the correct order on the next page.

1. The Bill placed on the House Calendar
2. The Law the finished product
3. The Governor receives the bill when it passes both houses
4. Bill Drafting writes the bill so the Representative can file it
5. Representative submits the idea to bill drafting
6. Clerk’s Office “reads” the bill the first time in the Journal
7. Committees & Subcommittees discuss the bill, amend the bill, hear public testimony, and vote on the bill
8. Rules Committee places the bill on the Special Order Calendar to be considered for action in the House Chamber
9. Concerned Citizens suggest legislation
10. Speaker of the House refers the bill to committees, subcommittees, or the House Calendar
11. House Chamber this is where the members may amend, debate, and vote on the bill
12. The House sends the bill to the Senate with a message stating the House passed the bill and requests the Senate to do the same
13. The Senate takes the bill through a similar process as the House, passes the companion bill, and returns the bill to the House

The Constitution of Florida

Just like the United States, Florida has its own Constitution that protects the rights of citizens. The Florida Constitution can be changed at any time if Florida voters decide the change is necessary.

Do you know what these changes are called? Use your math skills to decode the hidden message below and find out.

Imagine the community below is the one you represent in the Florida Legislature. As you can see, there are some problems you need to address! Now that you’re a State Representative, you can use laws to get your community back in order. Using each law only once, match the law with the issue you see in the pictures.

Community Laws

Leash Law: Keep pets on a leash in public places.

Litter Law: Place trash in proper containers.

Zoning Law: Businesses serving “adults only” must not be placed near school buildings.

Public Nuisance Law: Do not disturb the peace of others in public.

Traffic Law: Drivers and pedestrians must obey street lights & traffic signs.

Graffiti Law: Do not damage or deface the property of others.

Shoplifting Law: Customers must pay for any merchandise they take from a store.

Smoking Law: No smoking in most public and private businesses, including restaurants.
Your First Day as a State Legislator

Since the Legislature is only in session two months a year, Legislators spend much of their time in their home districts raising families and working other jobs, in addition to taking care of their duties as elected officials. Just because it’s technically a part-time job, doesn’t mean that their schedule is easy!

A Legislator’s schedule can be very hectic at times when they try to balance everything.

Using the appointments below, try to schedule your busy day as a Legislator, parent, and citrus farmer.
Make sure to use a pencil in case of mistakes!

Did You Know ...

... you don’t have to wait until you’re 18 to start making a difference? You can start right now!

Take Paloma, for example.

Paloma is a student from Tallahassee who was born with a rare condition called Peters Anomaly, which affects her vision. She actually had to have new pupils made for both of her eyes! Additionally, Paloma uses special equipment that helps her see certain things in the classroom. A few years ago, Paloma realized that not all of Florida’s visually impaired children were given the same resources that she had. You see, there was funding available for newborns to 5-year-olds and teenagers between 14 and 18, but somehow there was nothing provided for those between 5 and 14 years of age! This left over 900 of Florida’s visually impaired kids without a way to access the equipment and mobility training they needed, regardless of their financial status. So Paloma decided to do something about it.

She started a campaign called “Fund the Gap” to ask the Florida Legislature to fund the Division of Blind Services (DBS) Children’s Program, which would help over 300 kids in need. Then she visited the Capitol in Tallahassee and asked her state Legislators to support new funding so all of Florida’s kids have the tools they need to be successful students. She even got to meet the Governor! And guess what … it worked! So far, $1,250,000 has already been secured for the DBS Children’s Program with $500,000 repeating in Florida’s budget every year! Wow! There are many challenges out there that are simply waiting for the right person to come along with a solution.

What’s a problem in your community that YOU could help solve?
Write Your Own Law

Now it’s time to write your very first law!
Use the guidelines below to identify a real problem that you think should be addressed by the state government, then craft a bill that fixes that problem.

1. Problem
   Identify a problem that you think should be addressed by state government. How (if at all) is this problem currently being addressed by decision makers?

2. Solution
   List some options for solving the problem. What will happen if nothing is done to address the problem?

3. Your Proposal
   Which option do you think is the best and why? Which community members will be affected by these changes? How do you think they will react to your proposal (positively or negatively)?

Pages and Messengers are students in 6th grade through 12th grade who come to the Capitol and work one week during the 60-day Regular Session. Each of the 120 State Representatives may sponsor one Page and one Messenger.

Pages and Messengers assist the Representatives and their staff during the Capitol’s busiest time of the year while observing state government in action.

Are you interested in becoming a Page or Messenger? To learn more, visit: www.myfloridahouse.gov or call the House Office of the Clerk at (850) 717-5401.
Get Involved

You can play a vital role in the formation of Florida’s laws. As a Florida citizen, you have the power to work with your State Senator and Representative to create laws that make your community stronger. In fact, Florida Legislators love hearing from students!
Here are some ways that you can make your voice heard in the Florida Legislature:

Write a Letter
Write a letter to your Representative! You can find their district office and Capitol addresses on our website.

Pro Tip: Double check that you are using the correct forms of address! Visit our website and look over the Practical Protocol for Floridians – it goes over all the proper etiquette!

Become a Page or Messenger
The Page & Messenger Program is a long-standing tradition in the Florida House of Representatives and offers students a fun and educational experience that will not be forgotten! This is your opportunity to observe lawmakers, lobbyists, staff, and constituents working together in the legislative process.

For more information, email: housepagesandmessengers@myfloridahouse.gov

Visit the Capitol
We always encourage you to personally visit the Capitol in Tallahassee. Whether your goal is to speak with a Representative, view session proceedings from the House Gallery, or even take a tour of the Chamber, we have a number of resources to make your visit as enjoyable, productive, and informative as possible.

Visit the Website
Our website has it all! You’ll find resources for finding and contacting your Representative, scheduling a tour, applying for the Page & Messenger Program, and so much more!

Be sure to check it out at: www.myfloridahouse.gov
