4. An officer, an employee, a justice, a judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 2. may submit a written request for the release of his or her exempt information to the custodial agency. The written request must be notarized and must specify the information to be released and the party that is authorized to receive the information. Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, dates of birth, and telephone numbers of current or former judicial assistants; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such judicial assistants; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such judicial assistants be made exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s.
24(a), Article I of the State Constitution. Such identifying and location information can be used as a tool to perpetuate fraud against an individual and to acquire sensitive personal, financial, medical, and familial information, the release of which could cause great financial harm to the individual. In the course of assisting in making rulings, entering judgments, imposing sentences, or reviewing cases, judicial assistants frequently do not create good will with litigants, the accused, the convicted, and their associates and families, thus making the judicial assistants, and their spouses and children, targets for acts of revenge. This risk continues after judicial assistants complete their public service. Disgruntled individuals may wait to commit an act of revenge until the employment of a judicial assistant ends. If such identifying and location information is released, the safety of current or former judicial assistants and their spouses and children could be seriously jeopardized. For these reasons, the Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that such information be made exempt from public records requirements.

Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.
