The home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former commissioners of the Florida Commission on Offender Review, previously known as the Florida Parole Commission, and the personnel of the commission whose duties include investigating, holding hearings, and making findings regarding violations of conditions of release; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of the commissioners and personnel; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of the commissioners and personnel are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution.

3. An agency that is the custodian of the information specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a written request for maintenance of the exemption to the custodial agency.

4. An officer, an employee, a justice, a judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 2. may submit a written request for the release of his or her exempt information to the custodial agency. The written request must be notarized and must specify the information to be released and the party that is authorized to receive the information. Upon receipt of the written request, the custodial agency shall release the specified information to the party authorized to receive such information.

5. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the
6. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2024, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former commissioners of the Florida Commission on Offender Review, previously known as the Florida Parole Commission, and the personnel of the commission whose duties include investigating, holding hearings, and making findings regarding violations of conditions of release be made exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the state Constitution. The Legislature further finds that it is a public necessity that the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of the commissioners and personnel, and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of the commissioners and personnel be made exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution. The Legislature finds that the release of such personal identifying and location information could place these commissioners and personnel, and their family members, in danger of physical and emotional harm from disgruntled individuals who have had a contentious reaction to actions taken by the commissioners and personnel. The Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from the release of such personal identifying and location information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.
