14. Is the project request an information technology project?

No

15. Is there any documented show of support for the requested project in the community including public hearings, letters of support, major organizational backing, or other expressions of support?

Yes

15a. Please Describe:

The critical shortage of skilled construction workers has been well documented in various governmental and media reports. Additionally, this is an employer driven initiative that is seeking the state's support in providing a pipeline of skilled workers for large-scale economic development projects underway in the Tampa Bay area. Letters of support from Associated Builders & Contractors and Independent Electrical Contractors have been sent to the House of Representatives, Senate and Governor.

16. Has the need for the funds been documented by a study, completed by an independent 3rd party, for the area to be served?

Yes

16a. Please Describe:

The college uses data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), a private labor market reporting service (EMSI), and focused discussions with employers to validate labor market needs. Phase I's feasibility study will allow for an independent third party to show the need for continued direct instructional costs overseen by apprenticeship agencies, additional lab equipment upgrades for current apprenticeship labs and recommendations for future apprenticeship lab expansion.

17. Will the requested funds be used directly for services to citizens?

Yes

17a. What are the activities and services that will be provided to meet the purpose of the funds?
Facility and program expansion. Expanded training and education opportunities.

17b. Describe the direct services to be provided to the citizens by the funding requested.
The citizens of Florida will receive expanded opportunities for high-skill "journeymen" training and apprenticeships for construction trades such as carpentry, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, sheet metal fabrication, and fire sprinkler installation.

17c. Describe the target population to be served (i.e., "the majority of the funds requested will serve these target populations or groups").
