House Democratic Caucus Launches New Website & Social Media Accounts to Better Serve the Priorities of Floridians

Tallahassee, FL – The Florida House Democratic Caucus has launched a new digital presence in order to increase the office’s ability to interact and serve the people of Florida.

In addition to a full redesign of the House Democratic website, now more easily accessible through the shortened URL of www.myfloridahouse.gov/FLHouseDems, Floridians can stay up to date on how Democrats are fighting for a better public education system, access to affordable healthcare, a clean environment, and good-paying jobs through our new Snapchat and Instagram accounts. Floridians should also expect to see more engagement through the existing Facebook and Twitter accounts.

House Democrats can be found on all platforms at FLHouseDems. For the 2017 Session, House Democrats are encouraging Floridians to let us know their ideas for building a better state using the #PriorityBlue.

“We want the people of Florida to know that when it comes to the House Democratic Caucus, our priorities are your priorities,” declared House Democratic Leader Janet Cruz. “I’m incredibly excited that we’ll now have more ways than ever to connect with our constituents and share our message of economic security for all Floridians. We’re here to do the people’s work and that means listening and engaging with the people on the issues that truly matter to them and their families.”

“I urge every Floridian to share their priorities for a stronger Florida with us using the #PriorityBlue,” stated House Democratic Leader Pro Tempore Bobby Dubose. “By working together, I know that we can ensure every child in Florida gets a quality public education that leads to a good-paying job for themselves and their families.”
