This Agreement is by and between, The CCPWA-County Public Works Authority, hereinafter referred to as "CCPWA" and the consulting firm, CAS Governmental Services, LLC, hereinafter referred to as CASGS.

Whereas, the CCPWA desires to engage the services of an individual or firm to monitor Legislative Issues for the CCPWA and to seek special legislative appropriation funding. This service will be with respect to legislative issues, special funding and/or legislative appropriations relating to Moore Haven and Glades County, Florida.

Whereas, the CCPWA voted in an official meeting of the CCPWA to contract the professional Governmental Affairs Representation services of CAS Governmental Services to monitor legislation, seek and administer special funding projects relating to improvements in Moore Haven and Glades County, Florida.

PUBLIC INFORMATION:

The Florida Legislature has amended Chapter 119 Florida Statutes, Section .0701 thereof, to expand the obligation of local government to include into all contracts certain language that relates to public records, which is made a part of this Contract.

The contractor agrees to follow the rules as set forth in the Chapter 119 Florida Statutes and an attachment A, of information, is made part of this of this agreement.

SERVICES: CASGS will provide the following services: Provide information and data to Federal, State and Regional agencies; Prepare appropriate draft cooperative agreements for agencies involved and for review by the CCPWA; Provide appropriation language and, as directed, work with CCPWA Staff; Attend and provide testimony at appropriate subcommittee meetings; Attend and provide testimony at appropriate committee hearings; Coordinate and solicit support from legislators and appropriate state agencies and other special testimony as may be needed. Report findings to the CCPWA; Make necessary reports to appropriate Federal, State and Regional agencies.

COMPENSATION:

- * CASGS shall invoice the CCPWA for normal out-of-pocket expenses and hourly rate fees, at $100.00 per hour, for the time worked, and pass-through charges. CASGS will divide hourly rate and pass-through expenses (Travel, Hourly Rates, Misc. Expenses, Contract Services and Lodging) among its client base for similar and alike services.

The CCPWA agrees to make payment within thirty (30) days.

WARRANTY: CASGS cannot and does not make, nor imply, any form of warranty or guarantees regarding the outcome of any legislation, special funding or appropriation passage.

TERMINATION: Termination of this contract may be made by the CITY or CASGS with a thirty (30) days written notice, sixty (60) days once Legislative Session begins. Termination notice shall be in writing thirty (30) days prior to the date given as the termination date. Termination shall not deprive CASGS from final invoicing and for payment(s) for work already complete or substantially complete, or for neither funding approved or underway, nor shall termination deprive CITY from work products already complete or substantially complete.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This contract shall become effective when executed.

Dated this 3RD day of JANUARY, 2016.

PUBLIC INFORMATION
CHAPTER 119 F.S.

IF THE CONTRACTOR HAS QUESTIONS REGARDING THE APPLICATION OF CHAPTER 119, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO THE CONTRACTOR'S DUTY TO PROVIDE PUBLIC RECORDS RELATING TO THIS CONTRACT, CONTACT THE CUSTODIAN OF PUBLIC RECORDS FOR THE CCPWA AT:

CCPWA City Clerk's Office
City of Moore Haven
99 Riverside Drive
Moore Haven, FL 33471
863-946-0711

1. The contractor shall adhere to Florida public records laws, including the following:
 - a. Keep and maintain public records required by the CCPWA to perform the services, and upon request of the custodian of records for the CCPWA, provide the CCPWA with a copy of the requested records or allow the records to be copied or inspected within a reasonable time at a cost that does not exceed the cost allowed in Chapter 119 or as otherwise provided by law.
 - b. Upon completion of the contract, transfer, at no cost, to the CCPWA all public records in possession of the contractor or thereafter keep and maintain public records required by the CCPWA to perform the service. If the contractor transfers all public records to the CCPWA upon completion of the contract, the contractor shall destroy any duplicate public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements. If the contractor keeps and maintains public records upon completion of the contract, the contractor shall meet all applicable requirements for retaining public records. All records stored electronically must be provided to the CCPWA, upon request of the CCPWA Clerk, in a format that is compatible with the information technology systems of the CCPWA.
2. Noncompliance:
 - a. A request to inspect or copy public records relating to the CCPWA's contract for services must be made directly to the CCPWA. If the CCPWA does not possess the requested records, the CCPWA shall immediately notify the contractor of the request, and the contractor must provide the records to the CCPWA or allow the records to be inspected or copied within a reasonable time. A reasonable time is defined as within eight (8) business days.

- b. If the contractor does not comply with the request of the CCPWA for the records, the CCPWA shall enforce the contract provisions in accordance with the contract.
- c. If the contractor fails to provide the public records to the CCPWA within a reasonable time, the contractor may be subject to the penalties under Chapter 119.10.

3. Civil Action.

- a. If a civil action is filed against a contractor to compel production of public records relating to the CCPWA's contract for professional services, the court shall assess and award against the contractor the reasonable costs of enforcement, including reasonable attorney fees, if:
 - 1. The court determines that the contractor unlawfully refused to comply with the public records request within a reasonable time; and
 - 2. At least eight (8) business days before filing the action, the plaintiff provided written notice of the public records request, including a statement that the contractor has not complied with the request to the CCPWA and to the contractor.
- b. A notice complies with the above if it is sent to the custodian of public records for the CCPWA and to the contractor at the contractor's address listed on its contract with the CCPWA, or to the contractor's registered agent. Such notices must be sent by common carrier delivery service or by registered, Global Express Guaranteed, or certified mail, with postage or shipping paid by the sender and with evidence of delivery, which may be in an electronic format.
- c. A contractor who complies with a public records request within eight (8) business days after the notice is sent is not liable for the reasonable costs of enforcement.
